Shareholder engagement update on 2020 Annual General Meeting vote

Allied Minds plc (LSE: ALM), the IP commercialisation company focused on early stage technology businesses, reports that in accordance with the UK Corporate Governance Code and the commitment it made after its 2020 Annual General Meeting, it has consulted with and received feedback from its major shareholders regarding the company's remuneration report for the year ended 31 December 2019. Although the resolution to approve the remuneration report was successfully passed with the requisite majority at the 2020 Annual General Meeting, it received more than 20% of votes against the resolution. After extensive engagement with its major shareholders, the Board notes that shareholder concerns were focused on remuneration schemes in place for 2019 and prior that have since been addressed. Accordingly, the Board believes that the substantial amendments the company made to its remuneration programme for 2020 and onwards, as detailed in its 2019 Annual Report and Accounts, have and continue to appropriately address shareholder concerns and no further modifications are necessary at this time.
