Allied Minds

Directorate changes

Allied Minds plc (LSE: ALM), the IP commercialisation company focused on early stage company development within the technology sector, has appointed Harry Rein, currently Senior Independent Director, as Chairman. He succeeds Jeff Rohr, who has stepped down. Additionally, Bruce Failing has been appointed as Non-Executive Director. Both appointments are with immediate effect.

Bruce has over 30 years of management and investment experience in the areas of media and consumer products, applied technology and logistics management. He founded and currently is the General Partner of Alerion Partners. Previously, he was CEO of Productivity Solutions, Electronic Retailing Systems and Actmedia, and Executive Chairman of ScentAir Technologies and Lamaze Publishing & the Newborn Channel. Bruce attended Tufts University (1971) and holds an MBA from Harvard Business School (1973).

Bruce will assume the Senior Independent Director role, Chair the Remuneration Committee and be on the Nomination and Audit Committees.

Mark Lerdal will Chair the Audit Committee. Harry will Chair the Nomination Committee.

Harry Rein, Non-Executive Chairman, commented:

"On behalf of the Board, I extend our deepest thanks and appreciation to Jeff for his many dedicated years of service on the Board and the leadership and support he has provided over the past six years.

"I welcome Bruce to the Board. His operational and management experience and expertise is invaluable and positions him perfectly to help us.

"I look forward to becoming Chairman and continuing to work closely with my fellow directors as we execute on our strategy of delivering shareholder value by focusing on our existing portfolio."

There are no further details in relation to Mr. Failing's appointment which require disclosure pursuant to Listing Rule 9.6.13.
